

A picture book for your photographs

My Day at the Zoo

Written by Vickie G. Hampton
Illustrated by Michelle Y. Glennon

A Look Inside My Day at the Zoo

WRITTEN BY VICKIE HAMPTON
ILLUSTRATED BY MICHELLE GLENNON

This picture book belongs to:

My visit to the zoo was on:

I went to the zoo with:

My favorite animal was:

My Day at the Zoo

Written by Vickie G. Hampton
Illustrated by Michelle Y. Glennon

I rushed to see the deer
and her baby fawn.
I wish they could live
on my front lawn.

The giraffes had long necks
as tall as the trees.
The elephants had long noses.
I wanted to see one sneeze.

And zebras look just like striped horses, yes they do.
So do camels sort of, kinda,
but with humps, one or two.

The monkeys and apes played like kids, you see.
I think they wanted to be friends with me.

Tigers and lions really like to roar.
But sometimes they sleep
under the trees and stone.

Did you know that bears can be brown or black or white?
And pandas are soooo cuddly
I could snuggle with them all night.

I saw lizards and snakes
and pop-eyed frogs, crocodiles and alligators
that looked like bumpy logs.

I saw lots of birds,
some big, some small.
Some soar very high,
some don't fly at all.

I saw animals, animals, animals
the day I went to the zoo.
I had so much fun.
You should go there, too!

More pictures from my day at the zoo